Dedicate to Coach Ingersoll

The 1968 Shield is dedicated to Frank Ingersoll.

Mr. Ingersoll came to Woodrow Wilson in 1963 as a member of the school's original faculty. He didn't coach basketball last season, during which he was hospitalized for 21 days with a heart ailment.

He returned to the helm of the varsity basketball team for the 1967-68 season. At the outset, the 41-year old teacher-coach informed his players that this year - his 14th - would be his last year in coaching. Then he plunged into the job of building the team into a cohesive unit.

"Frank is a perfectionist," observes assistant coach Ed Rueda, "and the kids liked this. They saw success in playing the game his way."

Success the team had, sweeping to 27 straight victories - including two pre-season tournaments, the AAA championship, and the championship of northern California's Tournament of Champions.

Bishop O'Dowd's cage coach Frank La Porte said, "Mr. Ingersoll did the finest job of coaching this season." Player Eli Neal said, "We tried to win it all for him." Coach Ingersoll said, "I'm the luckiest man alive. How many guys get a chance to leave coaching on top?"

Mr. Ingersoll will now devote full time to the field of health education, in which he holds a Masters from Stanford. We wish Mr. Ingersoll every future success. Certainly Woodrow Wilson High School is better for his having been here.

What do you say now, Coach?

The coach discusses strategy with his attentive players during time-out in a key game.

Faculty, staff

Woodrow Wilson's faculty and staff have contributed much to school spirit and to the attainment of school goals and prestige. From the principal to the newest janitor, the main concern seems to be to enhance Wilson's reputation as the top secondary school in San Francisco.

Not only in classroom duties and other daily chores do faculty and staff prove their worth. They do it in countless ways outside of the regular school day. Sponsoring a club or class, organizing a winning rooting section or sports team, playing on a faculty basketball or bowling team - these are but a few of their many activities as Wilson Boosters.

Although the Tournament of Champions victories by Wilson's basketball team and rooting section were achieved mainly by students' hard work and effort, who would deny the valuable contributions of Frank Ingersoll and Sue Greendorfer?

We are sure that all students at Wilson join us in expressing appreciation to OUR FACULTY AND STAFF for a job well done. Let's continue to move forward together.

Top Spirit

While the Woodrow Wilson Varsity Basketball Team was going undefeated in 27 contests and climaxing a perfect season by capturing the coveted Tournament of Champions trophy, the Wilson rooting section was making history, too. The Wilson rooters, who had kept team morale high all season, took over at the Tournament of Champions and made WWHS the first San Francisco public school to win the TOC award for its rooting section.

With 603 spirited Wilson students in the Oakland Colisuem on the first night, 575 the second night, and 700 the third night, it was no surprise when Wilson's rooting section won the first place trophy for being the most spirited, best conducted, and best in appearance at the TOC. The section was made up of white background with a bright green "W" in the middle. It had been organized by the students with the help of Miss Susan Greendorfer, student activities adviser.

Mayor Alioto

Mayor Joseph Alioto makes a point.

Mayor Joseph Alioto and Dr. Robert Jenkins helped Wilson celebrate its TOC victory at a rally on Thursday, March 21, on the school's football field.

Mayor Alioto said, "It is an honor for San Francisco to have a school like Wilson."

Congressman Philip Burton, who was respresented by Mr. Joseph Beeman, was in Washington entering into the Congressional Record great words of praise about Wilson.

Mr. Sam Skinner, sports editor of the Sun-Reporter and representative from radio KDIA, presented the yell leaders a beatiful trophy from KDIA to the Wilson student body.

Miss Susan Greendorfer awarded the yell leaders and song girls the spirit trophy won at the TOC. She in turn received an award from the Executive Board for her help in organizing the TOC winning rooting section. The rally ended with the singing of the School Hymn.

Let's dance!

Wilson's school dances were spirited this year if not crowded. Some of the best musical talent entertained at each event. Playing at the "Welcome Sophomore Dance," for example, were the Motown Souls.

The big dance of the year was the "Victory Dance" on March 22, at which the school celebrated its twin victories in northern California's Tournament of Champions, where WWHS won both the basketball championship and the rooting section trophy. The victory dance was also the best attended of the season, drawing some 400 students who danced to the solid sounds of the V.I.P.'s.

Ensign Nellie Forbush and Luther Billis entertain the servicemen at the "Thanksgiving Follies."

Liat (Aurora Fisher), an island girl, tires to explain her love to Lt. Joseph Cable (Ed Heisch).

Emile de Becque and Nellie Forbush discuss their relationship on the terrace of his home.

"South Pacific"

The smashing musical "South Pacific" was presented at Wilson on May 6th, 12th and 13th in the school auditorium.

The story concerns Ensign Nellie Forbush (Marilyn Meade) and how she tries to win the love of Emile de Becque (Tony Rodriguez), a plantation owner in the South Pacific. Many hilarious scenes and many beautiful songs were presented throughout the play.

"South Pacific" is a very significant play in that it was the last play in which Marilyn Meade and Tony Rodriguez played together. For three years they were a duet, making Wilson known for its great plays. In "South Pacific" they perhaps gave their best performance.

Bloody Mary entertains the servicemen with "Bali Hai" at the local laundromat.

Tony Rodriguez gives his rendition of "Some Enchanted Evening".

Emile de Becques' children by a former marriage, Jerome, Victoria and Ngana, sing a native song, "Dites-Noi."

Marilyn Meade and Tony Rodriguez in a scene from their last play together.

The cast (hippies, policeman and old lady) say good night!

"Hip Hippie"

"Hip Hippie Hooray," a really new play, was presented by Woodrow Wilson High School on December 8th and 9th.

The story is about Suzy Stevenson (Sandra Neal) opening a free restaurant in San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district. Her goal is to find her brother (Peter Voelker) who has disappeared from home. Many humorous adventures with both hippies and squares are encountered by her. She is forced to judge both civilizations, and decide which one is hers. She decides, in a discussion with her brother, that her world is the straight world.

The play, under the direction of Mr. Harry Lieberman, proved to be a real Haight Street "happening."

"It only happens once in a lifetime."

The audience is funnier than the play!!

It's all right, Sue, the "real people" love you.

Mr. White, Brad Erkeneff, Mal Tornay, Tony Rodriguez and Steve La Pointe entertain at "Hippie."

Dirty face or not,
I still love you!

Mr. Nichols, a member of the Board of Education, addresses the assembly.

Each semester a Corinthian Award is given to 10th graders who have shown consistent effort in their Low-Ten English classes.

The Corinthian Awards, first given in March of 1965, were presented again at the fourth Corinthian Awards Assembly in the Fall to give praise to students for their hard and consistent work in their tenth grade year in English classes.

The Assembly was held at Wilson's Auditorium on November 16, 1967, when 38 award winners and their parents were honored before the new low ten class. Guest speaker Mr. Alan Nichols from the Board of Education spoke on the original Corinthians and how they were models for today's students and citizens. Along with Dr. Nichols, Mrs. Evinger, representative of the Corinthian Society of the Bay Area, and other community leaders attended. Mr. Knowles and Mr. Heinz officiated at the ceremony.

Big football

Woodrow Wilson's first Powder Puff football game was held on November 22nd between the girls of the Junior Class and the girls of the Senior Class.

Since the girls were taking boys' places on the football field, the boys took care of cheerleading, complete with wigs, dresses, and pom pons. The cheerleaders were Bob Lepping, Ed de Hertel and Bill Sneathen. Both the Juniors and Seniors worked hard to defeat each other, but the mighty Juniors came out on top with a 12-0 score.

Wilson's ROTC Drill Team performs for the Reserve Officers Association at The Presidio on 15 October, 1967.

ROTC advances

Woodrow Wilson High's ROTC Drill Team is a special branch of the ROTC Department. The ROTC Drill Team meets each day, before and after school. Each member thus devotes much of his free time in order to attend practice sessions.

The purpose of the ROTC Drill Team is twofold: first, to develop team participation and second, to represent Woodrow Wilson High in any Bay Area parade and ROTC Competitions.

Woodrow Wilson High's ROTC Drill Team came into existence in the Fall of 1966 under the command of ten Cadet Second Lieut. Mosher.

In the Fall of 1967, Cadet Second Lieut. Gonzales was elected Drill Team Commander with Cadet Second Lieut. Tejo as the asst.-commander.

In the Presidio Competition (30 September, 1967), the team placed fifth among the City's older high school drill teams. At the Liberty Bell Competition (15 October, 1967), the team again showed up older drill teams by placing third! Members of the team have also performed at Burkan, Pelton and Portola Junior High Schools.

The prsent drill team commander, Cadet Second Lieut. Gonzales, is a senior. Before coming to Woodrow Wilson High, Gonzales spent two years on Lowell's ROTC drill team. As of 1968, The Woodrow Wilson team has been rated as fourth among San Francisco's high school drill teams.

The Woodrow Wilson High School Drill Team competes at The Presidio on 30 September, 1967.

RAISIN IN THE SUN

Undoubtedly the best all-time production by any San Francisco High School was Wilson's "Raisin in the Sun." The play itself was very well-known, but when the parts were taken over by Becky Collins, Wilbert Battle, Darlene Nicks and Wanda Ross it became a production to go down in history. Their strong acting abilities, in spite of the fact they had no previous training, were what made it the success it was.

The story is about a Negro family that comes into a large sum of money and the problems they have deciding what to do with it. Besides the conflict with the money, there is a conflict within each member of the family.

"Raisin" was also the first play at Wilson to be performed as a theater-in-the-round. Another first for "Raisin" was that it was Mr. Lewis Campbell's first time directing a play at Wilson.

FACULTY LOSES TO ONEDERS

The Woodrow Wilson faculty faced a great challenge on December 14th when it hosted the famous KYA Oneders as part of a basketball double-header in the school gym.

Before an overflow crowd the faculty put up a gallant struggle but they finally succumbed to the talented disc jockeys. Led by former Warrior great Rick Barry, the Oneders pulled away in the last quarter to score an 85-63 Victory.

In the other game Wilson's Championship Basketball Team came from behind to smash the Alumni team. The Varsity was led by Ansley Truitt and Larry Haren.

Leading the faculty team was Big Ed Rueda.

Cagers take pre-season titles

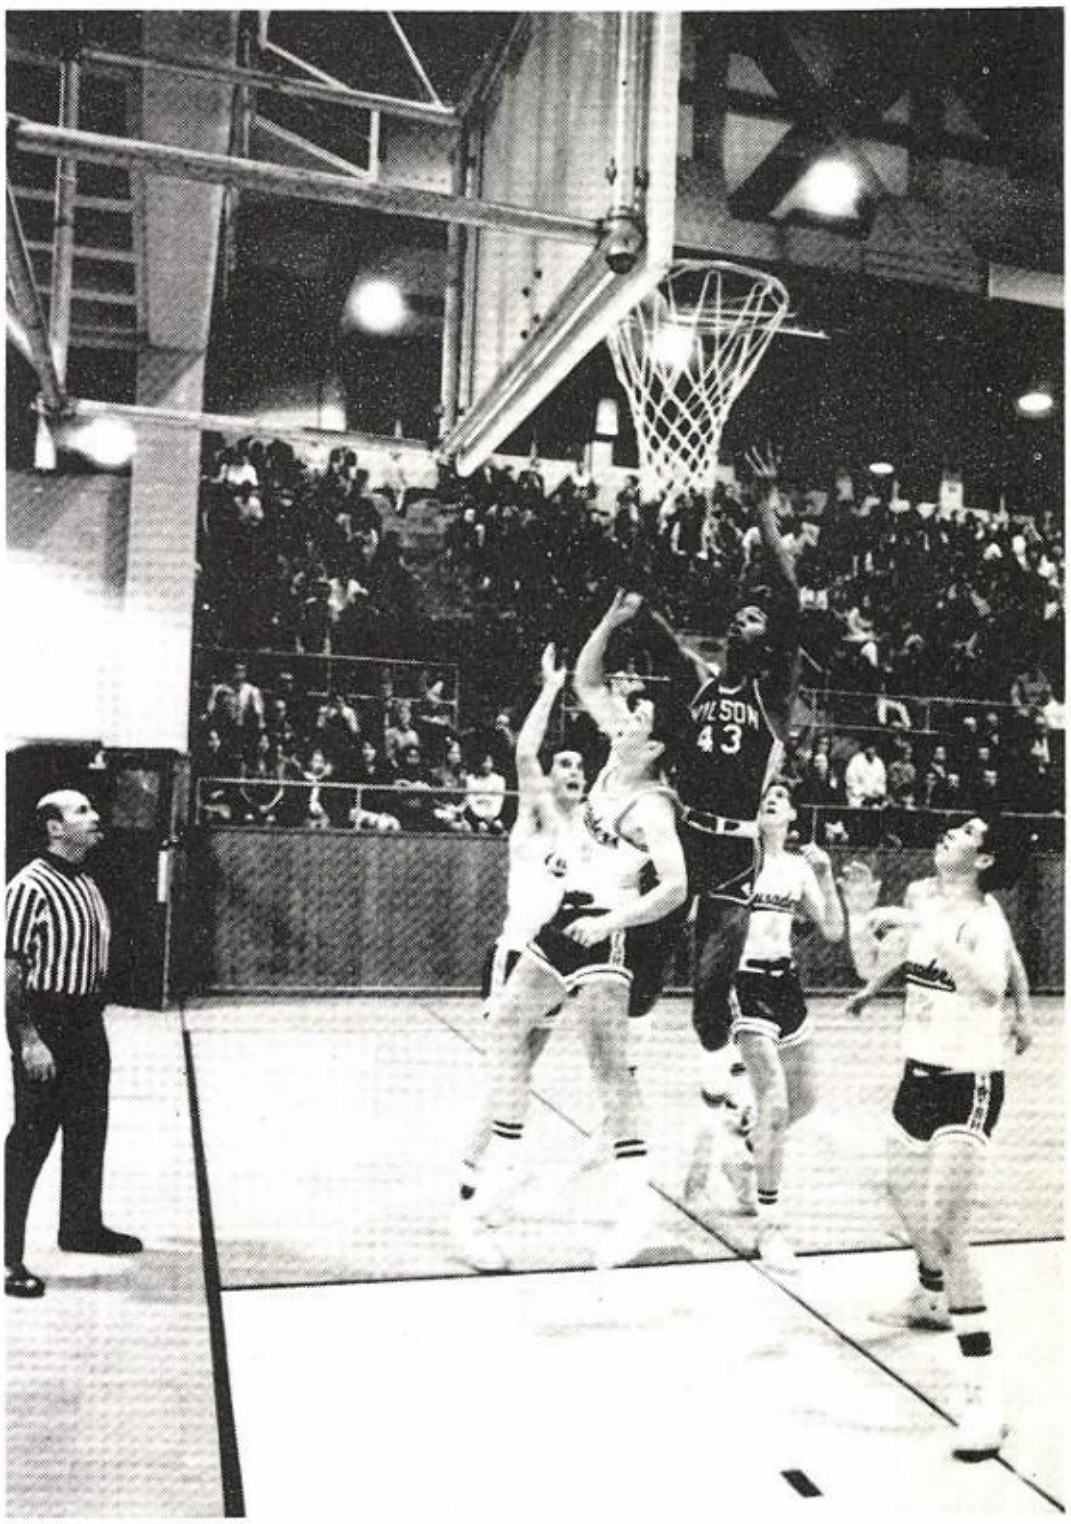
The '67-'68 version of the Woodrow Wilson varsity basketball team warmed up for a perfect season by winning all practice games and capturing two pre-season tournaments.

In the Riodan Christmas Tournament, the Warriors rolled over Aragon, 55-21, Poly, 71-60, and Sacred Heart, 51-41. Ansley Truitt was voted the Most Valuable Player award, and he was joined on the All-Tournament team by teammates Larry Haren and Eli Neal.

Mitty, Lowell, and O'Dowd were Wilson's opponents in the Bishop O'Dowd Christmas Touramment, and all three were victimized by Truitt and Co. on scores of 78-46, 50-42, and 56-51, rexpectively. Again Truitt was voted the Most Valuable Player and was joined on the All-Tournament team by teammates Willie Daigle, Larry Haren, and Mike Mims.

Against O'Dowd, the undefeated Warriors - San Francisco's newest prep squad - were facing California's No. 1 prep cage squad. When Wilson emerged victorious it was the first time in three years that O'Dowd did not win its own tournament. The top scorers of the game were Truitt with 20 points, Mims 17, and Haren 10.

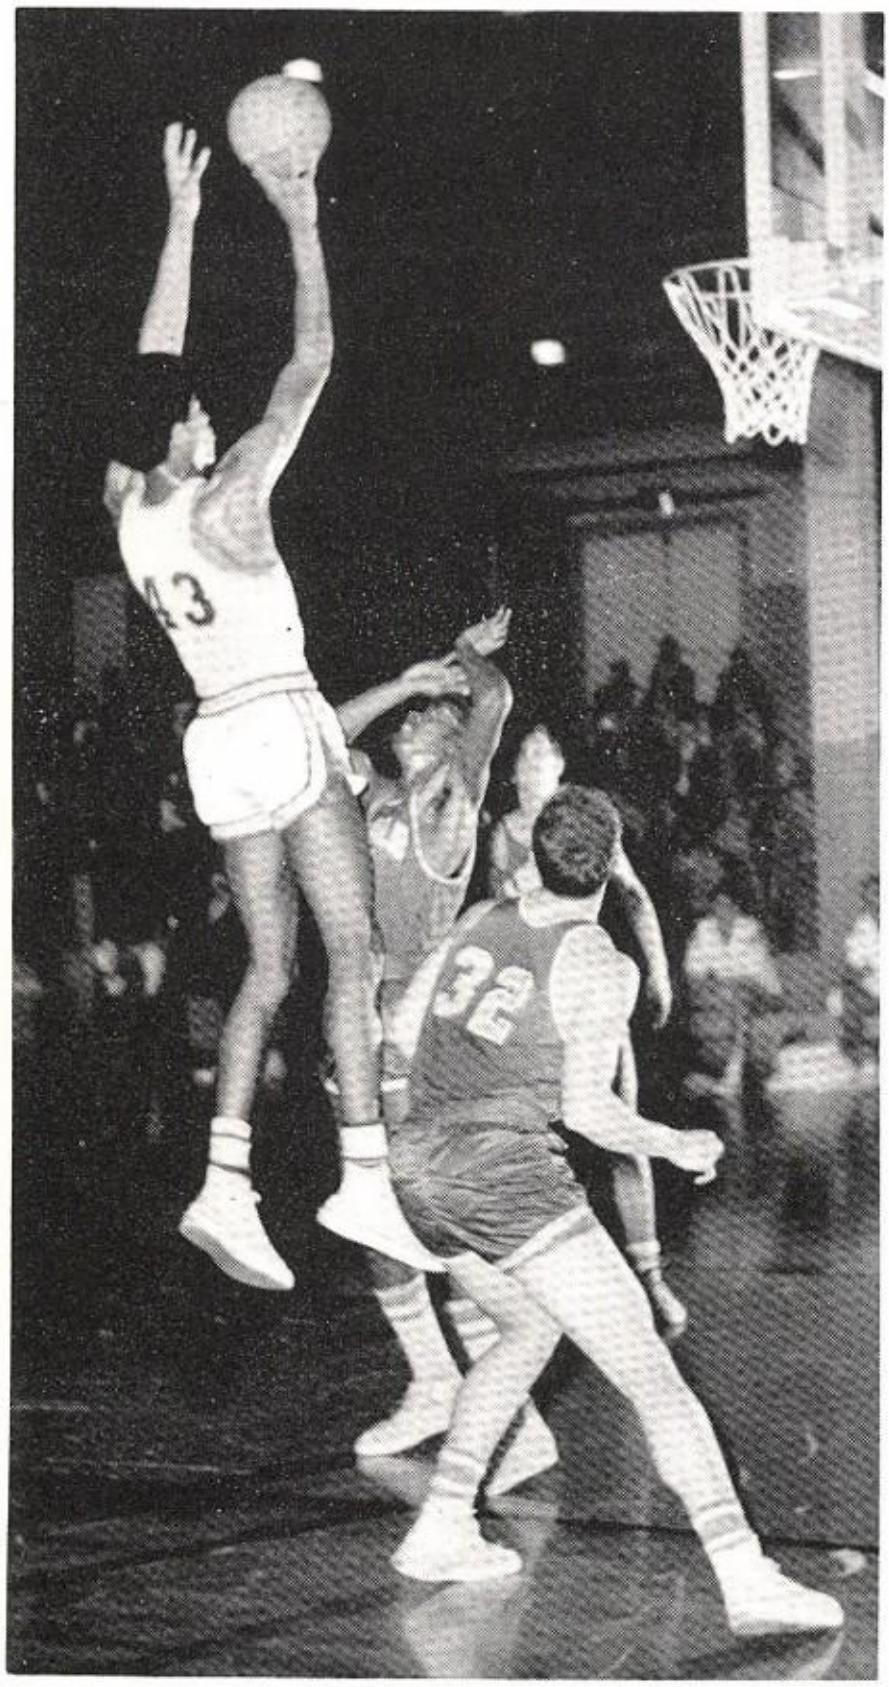
A typical performance by Truitt was in the Mitty game. Towering Ansley meshed 31 points and grabbed 18 rebounds.



Wilson's 6' 9-1/2" center Ansley Truitt is shown in action against the Crusaders.

On the opposite page, Ansley Truitt assumes a position that characterized Warrior play all season, during which he dominated the boards and was usually the top scorer in each game. It was perfect practice for a perfect season.

Roundballers breeze past



Truitt takes one of his typical shots - up and over the opposition!

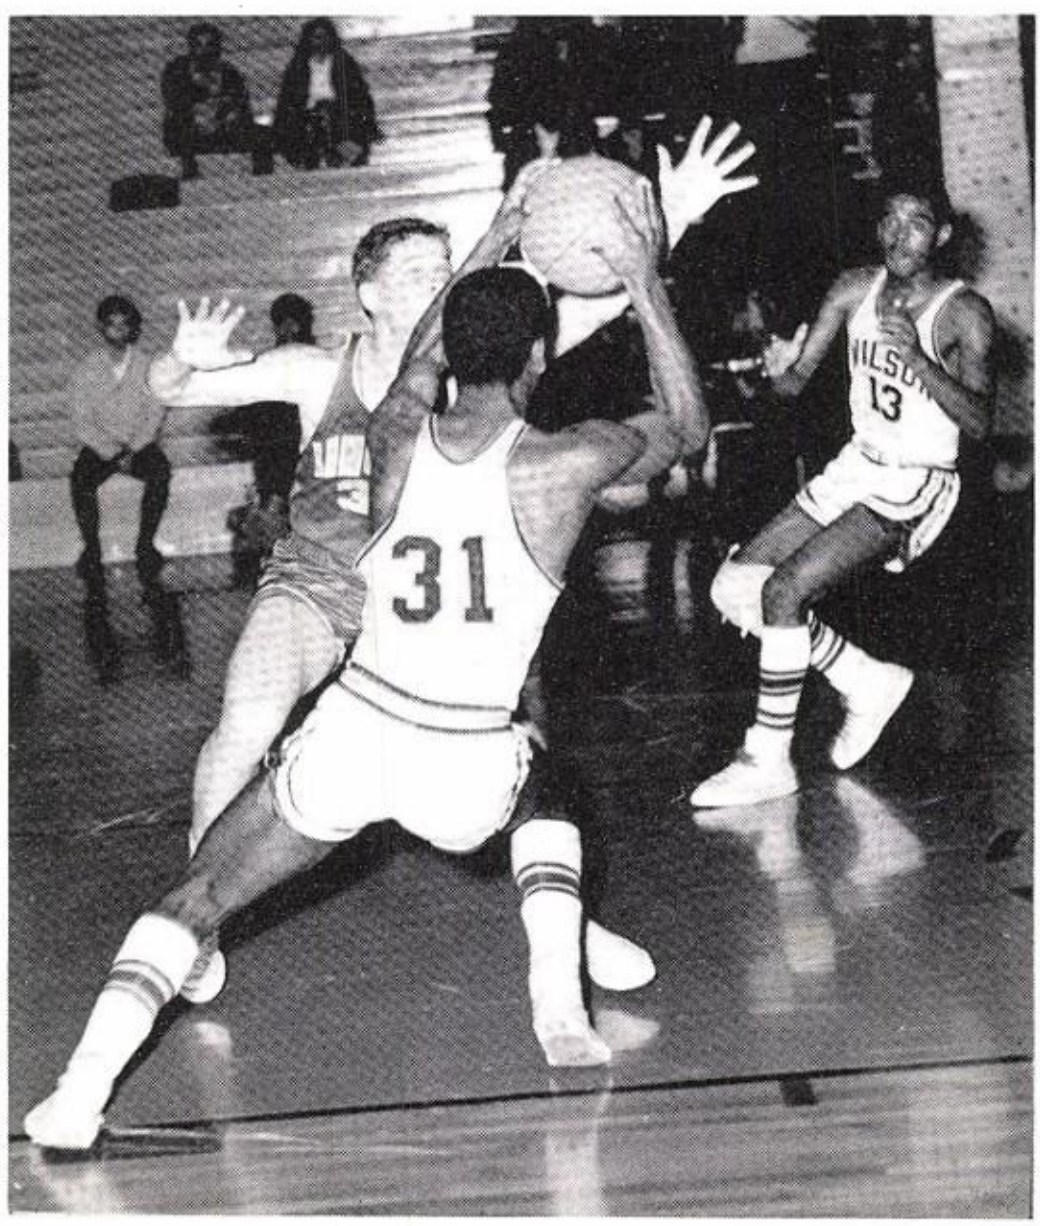
With pre-season victories over Bishop O'Dowd and McClymonds, rated No. 1 and No. 2 in the state last year, the roundballers of upstart Wilson opened the regular season confidently and breezed past Balboa, 61-34, Galileo, 71-55, Mission, 63-40, and powerful Poly, 75-51. This set the stage for the battle between two undefeated cage powers - the Warriors of five-year old Woodrow Wilson and the Irish of perennially powerful Sacred Heart.

The Irish did not remain undefeated any longer, as the Warriors handed them a 63-48 spanking. With three men guarding 6'9-1/2" Ansley Truitt, little 5'8" guard Eli Neal popped in 26 points to push his team over its biggest hurdle of the season.

Washington and Lowell fell next, as the Warriors romped to 58-29 and 62-45 victories, respectively. Then they easily "socked it to" Lincoln, 53-40, in the regular season finale to complete the school's first undefeated regular cage season.

Against the tough Parrots of Poly, Truitt was his usually superb self, guarding the Birds' big 6'7" Mike Stewart and still managing to be the Warriors' high point man. But as usual he received fine performances from Chris Christensen, Larry Haren, and Mike Mims, a mid-season graduate. Willie Daigle continued his fabulous ball handling feats.

Throughout the season Truitt received tremendous help on the boards from Chris Christensen and Larry Haren. Haren was also a timely scorer along with Eli Neal. Willie Daigle shot when needed, but he and Neal were mainly ball control artists.



The ball handling of Eli Neal and Willie Daigle was invaluable to the Warriors' success this year. Here Eli is about to pass underneath a Lincoln defender. Daigle is in position to receive.

Warriors take Play-offs,

Ansley Truitt controls the boards in the play-off game against Sacred Heart.

By the time the Warriors entered the AAA Play-offs they had made believers out of all San Francisco. They were heavily favored to win, which they did - beating Sacred Heart, 67-53, and trouncing Poly, 64-42.

Ansley Truitt was at his best in both play-off games. Sacred Heart was outmanned as Truitt, responding to the rooting section's chant of "Do it, Truitt," scored 31 points and grabbed 16 rebounds. He hit on 76 percent of his field goals, making 17 out of 21 attempts.

Poly was trampled. "Do It" pushed in 22 points, latched on to 10 rebounds, and blocked 12 shots. Yet, despite Truitt's individual brilliance, this final play-off victory was a team effort. Larry Haren, Willie Daigle, and Chris Christensen shot better than 50 percent from the floor, with Haren scoring 17 points and Daigle 12. Chris pulled in 8 rebounds and sank 5 points. Meanwhile, Daigle and Eli Neal frustrated Poly's guards - Daigle stole three passes and turned them into six points.

"This Wilson High team is the best basketball squad ever to come out of San Francisco," Poly Coach Don Benedetti said after the game. "And Ansley Truitt is the best prep player the city ever had," Coach Benedetti added.

Making the Chronicle All-City team were: Truitt (first team), Larry Haren (first), Eli Neal (second), and Chris Christensen and Willie Daigle (honorable mention).

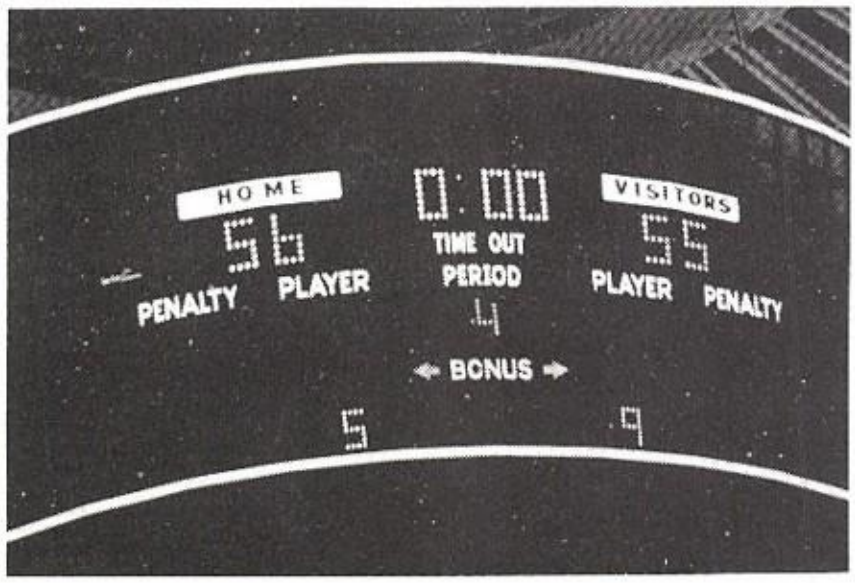
Warriors capture TOC,



With his team trailing 54-55 and only 17 seconds remaining, "Do It" Truitt calmly goes to the line against Newark's Knights. The results are recorded on the scoreboard above.

When the Warriors invaded the Oakland Coliseum on March 7 to do battle with Newark's Knights in the first game of the Tournament of Champions, the big question was the condition of Ansley Truitt's ankle. Injured in a practice game two days before, there was real doubt that Truitt could play in the first game.

Actually, Ansley played the whole game with his sprained ankle heavily taped, and he again was the big difference. All he did was calmly sink two free throws with 17 seconds left to give Wilson a come-from-behind victory over Neward, 56-55. Teamwise, Wilson played its worse game of the season, while Newark came up with what must have been its best game of the season. The score was tied 16 times, and the lead changed hands 21 times before Truitt calmly rescued Wilson's 25th straight victory.

After the opening squeaker, Wilson returned to form and rolled over Bishop O'Dowd, 72-58, then beat Berkeley, 68-62, to bring the TOC crown to San Francisco for the first time since 1957.

"We're Number One!" shouted the rooting section at the end of the Berkeley game.

Against O'Dowd, Larry Haren pumped in 22 points and pulled down 19 rebounds to aid the Warrior cause. Truitt scored 21, Daigle 10, Neal 8, Christensen 7, and Gunther 4.

In the final game with Berkeley, Haren and Truitt were the big guns. Haren scored 23 points, while Truitt scored 22 points and dominated the boards for 19 rebounds.

The Warriors placed three on the All-TOC team: Truitt, Haren, and Eli Neal.

rally for strong finish

The 1967 season was one of extremes. Actually, the varsity played two different seasons.

Among other things, lack of experience contributed to the team's losing its first three games. But after the turmoil at the Poly game, the team jelled and went on to defeat Lowell, Lincoln, Mission, and Washington; it had champion Balboa on the ropes, 19-12, before key injuries to Jack Holleman and Rene McClain.

The greatest moment of the season came against Lowell when a tremendous effort by Charles Lewis, Larry Haren, "Pone" Uperesa, Hilton Dillon, and Jim Quinnones stopped the Indians on the one-foot line on three successive plays.

The most thrilling game of the season was against Lincoln, when the Mustangs - undefeated and rated No. 4 in the state - invaded Wilson stadium expecting to romp over the Warriors. The Warriors refused to cooperate and perhaps the most thrilling high school battle in S.F. history ensued. Wilson led, 7-6, 19-13, 26-30, and finally, 32-26, on the strength of fantastic play by Chuck Ferrera, Mike Baines, Larry Haren, Hilton Dillon, "Pone" Uperesa, Mike Williams, and Bob Klotovich.

Next Wilson breezed pass Mission, 27-18, and clobbered Washington, 25-19, in a game not as close as the score might indicate. At the end of the season, sports writers and players and coaches felt Wilson to be the No. 2 team in the city - the only team that probably could beat champion Balboa. Three members of the team made All-City: Baines, Dillon, and Ferrera.

Next season looks good for the Warriors. Returning veterans are Jack Holleman, Pone Uperesa, and Larry Haren. Also, a host of prospects will be coming out from the junior and sophomore squads.

Bob Klotovich also proved to be a good blocker, as demonstrated here.

Fullback Bob Klotovich plunges through the Lincoln line for ten tough yards.

These seven players were the backbone of the 1967 team. FRONT ROW: Charles Lewis, outstanding defensive player; Chuck Ferrera, second team All-City quarterback; and Hilton Dillon, first team All-City tackle. BACK ROW: Bob Klotovich, defensive captain; Fred Rogers, team captain; Mike Baines, team captain and All-City end; and Pone Uperesa, second team All-City tackle.

No. 87 romps again.

go winless

Although Wilson's soccermen failed to win a single league game, they came in on top and first in one respect. The Warriors won, 5-0, for its lone victory of the season.

aim for Play-offs

After being victimized by Poly, 2-1, in the opener, the Warriors swept to five straight victories before losing a crucial two-day series to Lincoln, 2-1 and 3-1. Thus on April 5 the diamondmen of Wilson held a 5-3 record in double-round robin play.

With the great pitching of Jerry Schnell, Don Holvoet and Bob Bradley, and the outstanding hitting of Larry Haren, Fred Rogers, Rich Washington, Joe Lopes, and Louis Neal, the Warriors could still look forward to the City Play-offs. There they would hope to accomplish in 1968 what they failed to achieve in 1966 when they won the regular season title but lost the over-all title to Sacred Heart.

Coach Pete Dalton was confident that his team would win the play-offs and bring still another title home to Woodrow Wilson.

J.V.'s builds future stars

The Junior Varsity started the 1968 season with three straight victories. They shocked O'Connell twice, 9-3 and 15-2, then they outslugged Mission, 9-7, in a thrilling practice game. In a game against Mills the Warriors were on the short end of a 2-1 score when the game was called because of rain.

Providing the punch for the J. V.'s were Gerald Rankin, Charles Lewis, Larry Terry, Pone Uperesa, Dirk Tolson, Willie Bowman, and Gary Haren. Good pitching came from Frank Harper and Gerald Barker.

Among those expected to move up to next year's varsity were G. Rankin, C. Lewis, D. Pasley, G. Haren, L. Terry, G. Harper, V. Rodriguez, G. Barker, and W. Bowman.
